

HOW TO COME TO BAYRAMIÇ

The majority of external flights come to ISTANBUL ATATÜRK AIRPORT (the biggest one in Turkey.) But there are some external flights to İZMİR ADNAN MENDERES AIRPORT as well. İzmir airport receives direct external flights from France, Italy, Germany and England. But I advise you to come via Istanbul. There are many direct flights from all over Europe to Istanbul.

When you land in Istanbul, you have two options to take the road to Bayramiç.

- 1- First, there is a plane from Istanbul to Çanakkale every day. This plane is a local airline (called BORAJET) and it uses SABIHA GÖKÇEN AIRPORT in Istanbul. So, when you land in Istanbul from your external flight, you need to change the airport, which means you have to enter Istanbul traffic and pass from European side to Asian side of the city. The underground system doesn't go to SABIHA GÖKÇEN AIRPORT. So you need to take a shuttle bus. It is around 20 Euro per person from one airport to the other. Shuttle Bus. The price of plane tickets is reasonable. Let's say that everything went OK, the plane comes to Çanakkale and we need to find another bus and taxi from Çanakkale to Bayramiç.

- 2- Second, you land in Istanbul Atatürk Airport. You had better find an exchange office and buy some Turkish Lira (1 Euro = 3,05 TL). Then, directly follow the METRO signs. Go downstairs to the metro station. Istanbul metro is not very complicated and it starts from Atatürk Airport. You buy tokens from vending machine (4 TL for one person). Get on the metro. You have to get off at the 10th stop- OTOGAR (Bus Terminal).
